For increasing the global food supply by helping small farmers improve their soil, Lal has reduced hunger by pioneering agricultural methods across the globe which have restored degraded soil and reduced global warming.