

Call for Nominations!

Distinguished International Research and Engagement Award

The CFAES Office for Research and Graduate Education are requesting nominations for the CFAES Distinguished International Research and Engagement Award. The College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences (CFAES) translates cutting edge research to stakeholders across the state. By engaging with our stakeholders, we provide research, technology, and knowledge to support safe, sustainable, and viable agricultural practices across Ohio and the world. This important work could not be accomplished without outstanding researchers working on projects across the college.

The awardee will be selected based on their international research, teaching, and engagement accomplishments and impact made during the five-year period prior to the nomination (2019-2023, inclusive). Nominees with less than five years of service at The Ohio State University may include research accomplishments from previous institutions obtained during the five-year period. Documentation of all accomplishments should follow the attached guidelines and format.

Past award recipients in this category, in the previous five years (2019-2023) are not eligible for this year's awards. Past award winners can be found at: <https://research.cfaes.ohio-state.edu/home>.

- Distinguished International Research and Engagement Award

This award recognizes CFAES scientists who have actively engaged in international work involving teaching, research, and/or Extension which has had a substantial impact on international experiences for faculty and students, or on the country or countries hosting the projects or activities.

One award will be given each year to an individual or team.

The award will consist of a plaque and $1,000 cash prize to the awardee, and a one-time allocation of $3,000 to the operating expense account of the awardee's research project.

In case of a team: The award consists of a plaque and a $1,000 cash prize to each team member (not to exceed $5,000 for the team).

Nomination Criteria:*I. Eligibility

- a. All CFAES appointed researchers with the rank of Instructor, Assistant, Associate, Professor, and Research Scientists who are actively engaged in CFAES international activities to promote research and scholarly activity.
- b. Past award recipients in this category, in the previous three years are not eligible for this year's awards. Past award winners can be found at: <https://research.cfaes.ohio-state.edu/research/annual-research-awards>

II. Nomination Packet Guidelines

Please follow the guidelines carefully so the Awards Committee can make objective evaluations. Initiation of nominations within departments are the responsibility of the department awards committee or another appropriate committee as designated by the Chair. Each department may submit one nomination per category.

1. Cover Sheet – Submit a fully prepared cover sheet which includes the names of both the nominee and the department chairperson. It is the department chair's role to ensure that the nomination package is in strict accordance with the guidelines provided. Please see Appendix A.
2. Summary Evaluation Letter – This should be prepared and signed by the department chair. The Summary Evaluation Letter must be on college or department letterhead, and be no more than two pages, single spaced. See Appendix B for guidelines in completing the Summary Evaluation Letter.
3. Record of International Teaching, Research and/or Extension – All nominees must present a five-year (January 1, 2019- December 31, 2023) record of international teaching, research and/or extension accomplishments. Do not list accomplishments outside this period. Please see Appendix C.

Label each section of the application form clearly. Please start each section on a new page and validate all the requested information before submitting to the college. Please do not provide any information that is not within this five-year window. For each accomplishment, list authors in the order of appearance.

- Each nomination should be submitted electronically as a single PDF document on or before 5:00 PM on November 30, 2023 and contain the materials listed below to be considered complete. Nominations with missing documents will not be considered for awards.
- Nomination packets are limited to 20 pages.

III. Selection Committee:

A standing committee of faculty with broad disciplinary representation will be appointed by the Associate Dean for Research and Graduate Education. The Associate Dean will also select the chair of the committee. The Awards Committee is responsible for reviewing nominees and selecting the winners. The target date for a final announcement of the awards is February 2024.

IV. Award Presentation

Awards announcements will be made at the college's award ceremony that has followed the Dean's State of the College address, typically taking place in mid-to-late January. Awardees will also be recognized at the annual Research Conference on April 5, 2024.

V. Submit Nominations

Submit nomination via Qualtrics. The Qualtrics nomination portal will remain mostly unchanged from last year and is available on the CFAES Faculty and Staff Affairs website:

Guidelines for Summary Evaluation Letter of Research Program and Contribution

Nominators of candidates are requested to provide an evaluative summary of the candidate's international work involving teaching, research, and/or Extension. This statement must be limited to two pages, single spaced and must be prepared and submitted by the department chair. The principal objective of the summary evaluation is to interpret and frame the significance of the nominee's impact.

Provide substantive examples of the value of the nominee's international impact and any other context necessary for the committee to understand the nominee's impact on the discipline or beyond. Mere complimentary statements are of little value and are discouraged.

The following guidelines should be followed in writing this summary statement.

- Briefly summarize the major focus areas and impact of the candidate's research, teaching, and/or Extension international activities.
- Provide an evaluative summary of peer reviewed publications and other publications of relevance, indicating the relative prestige of the journals/proceedings where work was published and the number of citations or other measures of impact relative to the discipline. A summary of significant invited lectures or presentations should also be included. In addition to a general summary, the letter may briefly highlight up to five specific publications or presentations that are especially significant.
- Provide an evaluative summary of international student advising (BS Honors, MS, and PhD students) advised during this period for whom the candidate was the primary advisor. Include an indication of the relative size of the candidate's research group within the discipline and evaluate noteworthy accomplishments of the nominee's students.
- Provide an evaluative summary of the nominee's activities with international scholars, and international fellows.
- Discuss any major awards or honors that the candidate has received in the five-year period and establish their connection to international work. These may include election as a technical society Fellow, NSF (or other) early career grants, USAID and other technical excellence awards for papers or presentations.
- Provide an evaluative summary of the candidate's international grant/contract activity over the five-year period and evaluate the relative competitiveness and funding amount of these awards within the nominee's discipline. Highlight awards with international relations and activities.
- Provide a summary statement regarding the nominee's evidence of international research and scholarly work over the last five years.

Appendix C. Record of Research – focus should be on international activities.
